TORREON FALLS TO THE REBELS

Carranza Makes Positive Announcement to This Effect Last Night.

FEDERALS PURSUED.

Villa Orders Rations For Thousands of Starving People in Captured City—Americans Arrested.

Juarez, Mexico, April 3—Torreon fell completely into the hands of the rebels at 10:20 o'clock last night, according to an announcement made here last night by General Venustiano Carranza

The news first was announced to the world when the bugler in front of Carranza's residence blew the staccato notes of victory. The paean, Carranza, was sounded here even before it was heard in Torreon, Villa delaying out of compliment to his chief.

The meagre bulletin excitedly announcing victory, after the bloodiest series of battles known to modern Mexico, said that Villa captured a large number of prisoners, and that the fleeing federal remnant was being pursued.

Whether Velasco, the Federal commander, was captured, was not stated. There was heavy fighting today, it was understood and the end came when, after capturing the three remaining barracks, held in the city by the Federals, the rebels stormed the trenches and barbed wire entanglements of Canyon de Guarache.

The prisoners captured are believed to have been the defenders of the barracks, while the troops in the canyon, which forms an egress from the hill-girt city, were able to escape.

The campaign against the Federal stronghold of Torreon, the main object of the rebel campaign, began suddenly two weeks ago, after General Villa had spent months in making most careful preparations.

The rebel loss in this campaign is said to be more than 2,000 in killed and wounded. Trains loaded with wounded have been arriving daily at Chihuahua for the last week.

The rebel commander moved with a rapidity hitherto unknown in Mexican warfare. He worked his men in shifts, and as one shift became exhausted, he sent forth hosts against the enemy. A number of small towns of lesser importance, in a military sense, fell first—Mapimi Noe and Sacramento, where a bloody battle was fought This opened a path for the main attack.

Next came Lerdo and Gomez Palacio, populous suburbs of Torreon, and all three connected by a belt street car line. Lerdo was not defended, but it took three main assaults in which the rebels lost heavily, to take Gomez Palacio.

In the final attack on the city, troops were withdrawn from Lerdo, whereupon the Federals occupied it, and another sanguinary conflict was necessary to retake it.

Repeatedly the buglar sounded the call and a great wave of cheering arose.

By Carranza's orders all the town was illuminated, soldiers of the garrison paraded and the military band played.

The national salute was fired, church bells run and whistles blown.

Chihuahua, Mexico, April 3.—Edward A. Powers, United States consular agent at Parral, was arrested by the rebel authorities at Parral yesterday on a charge of passing counterfeits of the rebel fiat money. Mr. Powers telegraphed to Marion Letcher, American consul here, of his plight, and Letcher said he would demand the immediate release of Powers.

E. E. Johnson, cashier, and F. A Hawkins, assistant manager of the Alvarado Mining and Milling Company, both Americans, were arrested on similar charges, and Consul Letcher is looking after their interests.

It is asserted that the men are not guilty.

Constitutionalists Headquarters, Torreon, Mexico, April 3.—To the magnetic personality of Francisco Villa, one time bandit, now field commander-in-chief of the combined forces of the Mexican constitutionalists, should go the whole credit for the great victory just achieved in the capture of this city, according to his followers.

The fight for the possession of Torreon itself was the greatest and most desperate of the whole series of fierce battles which marked the Torreon campaign. Ten thousand rebels, in a frenzyy of enthusiasm, fought all Saturday night and Sunday in the open, yelling like demons, and encouraged to advance on the federal intrenchments under a withering fire by the presence on the firing line of Villa himself. Armed with a rifle, and carrying no insignia of his high office, the commander fought like a common soldier.

ASK DANIELS' HELP.

Washington, April 3.—Pathetic letters have been received by Secretary of the Navy Daniels from employes of the navy yard, who had been given two weeks' notice of discharge. One of the letters is from a young man who is the sole support of a widowed mother and family of younger children.

Another is from a man with an invalid wife, and in neither case is the worker able to pay the expenses of moving his family to another city, where employment may be found.

Secretary Daniels expressed the greatest sympathy with the men, but he did not see how the matter could be remedied. There is not work at the yard for the present large force. The reduction, department officials declare, was not ordered until actually necessary.

There were 400 men, including the 98 discharged machinists, at the meeting last night, and concurrence was given to a plan of giving greater financial assistance to the discharged men than the union regulations provide, if necessity be shown. Stuart McAllister, president of Columbia Lodge, declared that positions had been found for twenty-six of the discharged men, but that letters were being received from other cities which indicated that jobs would be found for many more.

It is the confident belief of the union officials that jobs will be found for all of the men in the next few weeks. Meanwhile the union will give financial assistance to those out of work.

SLASHER IS FED BY FORCE.

Riots of Militants Feared as Protest Against Move By British Jailers.

London, April 3.— All suffragette leaders are being closely watched today, owing to the fear that demonstrations may be attempted in protest against the forcible feeding of Mary Richardson, who slashed the famous Robeby Venus.

Home Secretary McKenna formally announced that forcible feeding had been found necessary.

Lisburn Castle, county Antrim, was fired by suffragettes last night, but the blaze was discovered and extinguished before serious damage was done.

A note of vengeance addressed to Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster leader, was left by the women.

MONROE DOCTRINE.

President of Argentine Republic Calls It "The Gutta Percha Message.

Buenos Aires, April 3.—The Monroe doctrine is now only an anachronism, as interesting, as "the martello towers of England or that country's wooden walls," according to President Saenz Pena, who discusses the doctrine in his new book.

President Monroe's doctrine has been made so elastic by American Presidents that it might be called the "gutta percha message," President Pena declares.

He termed the present interpretation of the doctrine absurd and capricious, and declared that the hostility of Latin-America to the United States was due to the fact that the North American government's attitude was cousinly rather than sisterly.

ROLLING STOCK TAXES CERTIFIED

NEW ACT IS IN FORCE.

Tax Commission,However,May Segregate This Revenue to The Commonwealth at Present.

Richmond, Va., April 3.—The rolling stock act of 1912 having been held unconstitutional, Clerk R. T. Wilson, of the State Corporation Commission, will today certify to the various cities in which are located the principal offices of steam railroad lines the assessment made by the State Corporation Commission on the rolling stock of steam railroads as of June 30, 1913. The tax will be levied in each locality at the local rates. Mr. Wilson explained that no penalty could apply for non-payment, as the assessment had just been certified for the year 1913, the delay having been due to the litigation over the constitutionality of the act.

This will probably be the last time that the rolling stock assessment is certified to the cities in which the home offices are located, the recent session of General Assembly having passed an act, which, it is believed, will meet the test of the courts, providing for the distribution of this assessment to the cities and counties through which the railroads run, giving no preference to the home office locations. Even this act, it is believed, will only apply for one year, as it is confidently expected that the special session of the General Assembly in January, on advice of the Tax Commission,will provide a new plan of taxation under which the tax on rolling stock will be segregated as a subject for taxation to the state alone. The act recently adopted will provide for assessments at county rates, rather that at city rates, thus largley reducing the total amount the railroads must pay.

Mr. Wilson will certify the following assessments on which taxes will be collected for 1913.

Washington-Southern Railway Co., principal office in this state is located in Alexandria; rolling stock valued at $199,150.

BRYAN WANTS FOOTMAN.

Tells Committee He Opposes Practice of Assigning Department's Messenger to Secretary's Carriage.

Secretary Bryan told the House Committee on appropriations Wednesday that it is bad form for him to go around in a carriage without a footman, "an assistant to the coachman,'" perched on the box.

Mr. Bryan said that for thirty years his predecessors in office had assigned a department messenger to act as coachman. He thought this practice was undemocratic and un-American and that Congress ought to make an appropriation for a coachman for the Secretary of State. Mr. Bryan also thought the coachman should have an "assistant;" that is to say, a footman.

Committeemen suggested to Mr. Bryan that he might have an automobile, but the Commoner spurned the suggestion.

"I am entirely satisfied with the carriage," said he.

Secretary Bryan explained that whenever he used the United States messenger as a footman he kept a record of the time, deducted the amount that it represented from the messenger's salary account, and paid this from his own pocket.

UNPROVOKED ASSAULT.

J. H. Crilly Attacked by Washingtonians and Seriously Injured.

Jeremiah H. Crilly, a prominent Alexandria wholesale grocer who was the victim of a brutal and unprovoked attack by three young Washingtonians yesterday afternoon, was unable to appear in Police Court this morning on account of his injuries. His assailants, A. M. Gunnell, twenty-three years old, W. Eugene Gunnell, thirty years old, and Benjamin Oliver, twenty-three years old, were committed to jail, without bond, for ten days to await the outcome of Crilly's injuries.

Mr. Crilly was assaulted yesterday afternoon at five o'clock. He was standing in front of his place of business on north Lee street when he was knocked down by one of the men. The three men then jumped on him and kicked him about the body and face, leaving their victim unconscious on the side walk.

According to their story in the police station last night, they were all drunk and did not seem to remember what they had done. A. M. Gunnell stated that he had hit Crilly and seemed to be very repentent of his deed.

The men came to Alexandria yesterday morning and spent the day in a resort in the northeastern portion of the city.

Later Justice Caton released the trio on a bond of $1,000 each, Hugh W. Gunnell, father of two of the men, becoming their surety.

ANNUAL INSPECTION.

Alexandria Light Infantry Makes Splendid Showing.

The annual inspection of the Alexandria Light Infantry took place last night at the armory on Royal street.

The inspection was conducted by the Captain Arthur M. Shipp, U. S. A., who has been detailed by the Secretary of War to make the inspection of the Virginia troops. The Alexandria boys made an excellent showing.

ARGUED AND SUBMITTED.

The case of the Gale Manufacturing Company of Albion, Mich., against the Ohio Rake Company, of Dayton, Ohio, and W. H. May & Son, Inc., of this city, was argued before Judge Waddill, in the United States Distrct Court in this city today. The case was submitted. This cause has been on the docket for some time. It is alleged by the plaintiffs that the Ohio Company in manufacturing a certain riding cultivator is infringing on the patent and that the Alexandria firm is among those selling the same.

NEW ESTABLISHMENT.

Another new store has been added to the commercial interests of Alexandria. Mr. Abe L. Cohen, formerly of Warrenton, Va., will open "The People's Popular Price Store", tomorrow at 418 King street, with a full and complete line of men's women's and children's wearing apparel. Mr. Cohen comes here highly recommended as to his integrity, honesty, fair dealing and progressive business abilities. His new store has been fixed up in fine shape for the opening and the departments so aranged that the trade can be handled with rapidity and satisfaction to all concerned. Attention is called to Mr. Cohen's large advertisement in this issue. In it will be found sufficient reference to immediately establish him in the business circles of Alexandria and welcome him a large nad liberal patronage.

DEATH OF MRS. BRUFFEY.

Mrs. Martha Bruffey, widow of the late T. J. Bruffey, died yesterday afternoon at her home in Potomac, Alexandria county. She was 65 years old and leaves several children. Her funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock from her residence.

PLANS FOR NEW HOSPITAL.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Alexandria Hospital last night held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, elaborate plans were made for the campaign to raise $50,000 for the new building of the hospital. The campaign is to commence April 19th and last until May 31st. The headquarters will be in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. The meeting last night was largely attended.

TIMES-DISPATCH ABOUT TO BE SOLD

Option of $450,000 Said to Have Been Secured on Richmond Paper.

GUARANTEE DEPOSIT.

Plans About Completed For Final Transfer Which is Expected Within The Next Few Days.

Richmond, April 3.—The Times-Dispatch has practically been sold to Richmond and New York men, and will pass from the ownership of the Bryans under a ten-day option dating from April 1st, The price to be paid is between $400,000 and $500,000, said to be about $450,000.

The prospective purchasers are Messrs. J. O. and T. S. Winston, of this city, members of the big contracting firm of Winston & Co., and Mr. Jules Breuchaud, of New York, also a contractor, who has large business associations with the Winstons. The Messrs. Winston and Mr Breuchaud, who is a native of Sweden, are all men of ample means.

The sale has not been actually closed, but there is little doubt that it will be and the transfer will probably be made in the next few days. The price has been agreed upon, the option was signed last Friday, the purchasers having made a large guarantee deposit here and the terms have been agreed upon in the main. The details are being worked out.

The negotiations have been conducted through Mr. O. J. Sands, president of the American National Bank, and Mr. S. W. Meek, a well-known newspaper man of this city. The former represented the purchasers and the latter Messrs. J. St. George Bryan and John Stewart Bryan, the owners. Both Mr. Sands and Mr. Meek assert that other Richmond men will be interested with the Messrs. Winston and it is reported that Mr. Meek will be associated with the paper in a managerial capacity. He was business manager of the Times-Dispatch at one time and held a similar position with the Virginian in its earlier history. Col. H. L. Hasbrook, of New York, a newspaper man of long experience, is here representing the purchasers, and will, it is understood, have general charge of the paper under its new ownership. His son, who is at the head of a large advertising house in New York, married a daughter of Mr. Breuchaud and it is thought that the younger Hasbrook will ultimately come here with the Times-Dispatch.

The Times-Dispatch is one of the oldest papers in the State. It represents the consolidation some years ago of the Dispatch, then owned by John L. Williams & Sons and their associates, and the Times, owned by Mr. Joseph Bryan. The consolidated paper was owned by Mr. Bryan up to his death, and it then passed to his estate. Some months ago Messrs. St. George and Stewart Bryan acquired the entire interest of the other three brothers. The company, under an amended charter, granted just before this arrangement was made, is capitalized at $300,000; of this there is $240,000 seven per cent preferred stock and $60,000 of common stock, which alone has voting power.

Bank Robber Caught.

Altoona, Pa., April 3.—After traveling over six States, County Detective James Spangler has returned from Wheeling, W. Va., with Wiliam Wilson, 35 years old, who was later identified by the officials of the Union National Bank as the man who robbed the institution of nearly $3,000, in a most sensational manner ten days ago, and used a stolen taxicab to make his escape.

W F. Maxwell, general manager of the Wabash Railroad, testified at the advance rate hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commision, today that unless a general reorganization in freight rates is made the railroads of the Central Freight Association territory cannot be kept out of the hands of receivers.

Claims Another Victim.

Chicago, April 3.—Bloody "death corner" claimed another victim early today. Joseph Ingo, a prosperous Italian, died from wounds sustained last night when two supposed blackhand assassins filled his body full of leaden slugs from sawed-off shot guns.

Ingo fell within 50 feet of the spot where Rosario Dispenza and Antonio Pucco, Italian bankers, were assassinated in the same mysterious manner recently. The slugs were of the same sharp-pointed, home-made design. The police arrested two suspects.

MANY DIE FROM RECENT BLIZZARD

RECOVER 40 BODIES

St. Johns, Newfoundland, April 3.—Facing the certainty that more than three-score on the sealer Newfoundland perished when caught in a blizzard last Tuesday, and with the probability that the number of dead may greatly excede the count, preparation to receive the bodies was being hurried here today by anticipation of the early arrival of the Sealer Bellaventure with the first consignment of the dead and injured.

Out of the blizzard which is raging off here today, the wireless of the Bellaventure reported her position as 150 miles from harbor. She cannot reach St. John before this afternoon, but when she arrives the frozen sealing men she is bringing will be at once rushed to a hospital in the Grenfell Seamen's Institute by the men of the British Drill Ship Calypso, who have been ordered to extra duty to aid in the work.

It is believed the Bellaventure is bringing the bodies of forty men who met death in the ice floes. She is also reported to have on board thirty odd survivors of the disaster, but it is not yet certain what happened to the Newfoundland, he reaptain Wesley Kean, and the remainder of his crew.

It is not believed the New Foundland was crushed by the floes, but only further word from the Bellaventure will clear up the story.

The fragmentary reports so far received indicate that thirty men of the New Foundland's crew are still unaccounted for.

Some of these are believed to have been saved by the steel whaler Stephano, and this vessel possibly is still at the scene of the disaster searching the scattered floes for the frozen bodies of others of the ill-fated crew

HIGH SCHOOL PLAYERS

"Everystudent" and "The Princess" Creditably Rendered Last Night

The two plays "Everystudent" and "The Princess" given last night by the Alexandria High School Players were a great success in every way. The hall was packed, and every reserved seat taken, and a great number stood up in the back of the hall. The sale of tickets for tonight points to the High School having an equally good attendance. Everyone who came to the plays last night was well pleased with the productions, and especially the scenic effects. The open fire in "Everystudent" and the rising full moon during the Prince's soliloquy in the first act of "The Princess" were alone well worth the price of admission paid. Those who arranged the scenery and properties deserve a great deal of credit.

The costumes also delighted and charmed everyone. They were very carefully gotten up, and appealed to all. In "The Princess," a play of mediaeval times, the costumes were of a kind to show off their beauty better, but that does not detract in the least from the well-made and equally attractive costumes in "Everystudent."

"Everystudent" was the first on the program, and made a decided hit with the very attentive audience. After the Prologue was read the curtain was opened.

The scene of this play is laid in Everystudent's room and is the typical picture of any boy's room, with the flags, pennants, and banners of various schools and colleges, hung and draped aobut the walls, a mantelpiece and an open fire by the back wall, a desk, a study table, chairs, and a lounge, piled with sofa pillows, in one corner. Result (Failure and Success) is discovered, and soliloquizes on her purpose in Everystudent's room, and why she has to haunt him with the grey side of her cloak showing—as Failure. Truth is the next one to appear, with bent back and a cane. The play runs straight along after Everystudent has come in with his friends, Bluff, Good Times, Classmate and Athletics, who try to persuade him from studying for the Exam tomorrow but fail, because Everystudent sees Result staring him in the face. After the dismissal of his friends, The Ghost Exam comes to warn Everystudent to meet him at nine tomorrow, and says "I can lay you flat." Study calls in Mathematics, who is dressed in a long black robe with beard and flowing hair, and Latin, in an Oriental costume. They study with Everystudent for some time until he hears his friends singing and cheering for a victory of the school team. He goes out and learns that Scrubb won the game, the last man he thought who could have made the team, and sees what determination can do. So he determines to seek Study and Truth. When a Herald comes in to announce that the World has sent for Everystudent, he is given the choice of seven followers. Everystudent quickly calls for Truth, Wisdom, Ambition, Perservance, and Good Sense, then finds he has left out Good Times and worst of all, Success, but is informed that since he did not choose Good Times, that he would have this person with himself always, and that Result must follow him forever, either as Success or Failure, as he chooses. Everystudent's Classmate, who has received a summons from the business world, chooses Bluff, his "faithful" friend, and Success, but Result appears to him as Failure then. In the end Ambition wins over Classmate, who is proudly knighted by Alma Mater with Everystudent, as the curtain drops.

"The Princess" is a dramatization in six scenes of Tennyson's poem of the same name. The curtain rises on this play, disclosing a spot in the woods near the Prince's palace. The Prince, Cyril, and Florien, are discovered sitting on a bench. The Prince explains his trouble to his friends, and announces his intention of going down into the court of the Princess. Florien tells the love the Princess. Florein tells the Prince he has a sister in the court and seek out by love the Princess. Florein tels the Prince he has a sister in the court of the Princess, and the three friends promise to all go together. After the exit of Florein and Cyril, the Prince is left alone in a soliloquy, while a full moon rises from the trees back of him. The charming of the audience was complete with the rising of the moon. The Prince closes his solitary discourse with the twice re-

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS

P. M. Bradshaw Elected Chairman and C. T. Howard Vice Chairman

The April meeting of the City School Board was held last night. Vice chairman Bradshaw presided and Messrs Kirk, Ervin, Howard, Nicklin, Carter, Thompson, Pierce, Wattles, Myers and Superintendent Sweeney, were present.

Several committees made reports on matters of a general nature, after which Superintendent Sweeney called attention to the number of panes of glass which are broken by the boys who invade the lot of the girls' school.

One of the members of the board said people residing near Lee school building make chronic complaints of the annoyance occasioned by boys and young men who take possession of the grounds after the dismissal of the school and use them as baseball fields. Ball throwing, they say is carried on in the streets in front of the building, and occasionally the windows of houses nearby are broken, while balls are often thrown into vestibules.

The vice chairman stated that he had called the attention of the police to this annoyance.

Superintendent Sweeney stated that the State Board of Education will consider changing text books of the school on the 20th of May, and it was agreed that the committee on books and printing consider any complaints that might be urged concerning certain books now used in the schools. The superintendent also read the reports of the doctors and visiting nurse during their examinations in the boys' schools. According to these reports the physical condition of the scholars made a fair showing.

It was ordered that the two high school rooms be closed on the occasion of the examinations April 15, 16 and 17th, also that the schools be closed on Easter Monday, as usual.

The board later went into an election for chairman to take the place of Dr W. M. Smith, resigned. P. M. Bradshaw, vice chairman, was elected by a unanimous vote, and T. C. Howard was elected vice chairman also by a unanimous vote.

A committee was appointed to draft resolutions expressing the thanks of the board to Dr. Smith for his earnest labors in behalf of public education in Alexandria, as well as his courteous conduct toward all while filling the position of chairman of the board.

Miss Blanche Rotchford appeared at the meeting for the purpose of making a request in person that four scholars of the public schools to whom she is teaching music be allowed to leave school ten minutes to 3 o'clock in the afternoon. She was accorded the privilege of making a statement, which she did in a few words.

No action was taken on the request and the board later adjourned.

ADMITS ASSISTING IN MURDER.

Kentucky Feudist Says Three Fired at Former Sheriff.

Winchester, Va., April 3.—"Doc" Smith, one of the men accused of having fired the shots which killed Edward Callahan, former sheriff of Breathitt county, went on the witness stand here yesterday at the trial of "Tom" Davidson, charged with complicity in the murder, and confessed to having assisted in the killing of Callahan.

He testified that he, with "Jim" Deaton and Andrew Johnson, went to Steep Hill, which overlooked Callahan's store at Crockettsville, and concealed themselves in the underbrush. They cut small branches of trees and stuck them in the ground as resting places for their rifles. When Callahan appeared at a window of his store the three fired. It is not known whose bullet struck Callahan, but two hit him

One of the attorneys asked Smith if he was a good shot, and Smith replied he had never been beaten. Smith testified that Davidson knew of the plot to kill Callahan.

"Dan" Deaton, one of the defendants, testified he heard Davidson say: "We must kill Callahan." "Dan" said he and "Bob" Deaton left Jackson with the party which intended to kill Callahan, but that they intended to shoot Anse White, a feud enemy, who was expected to come along the road near Callahan's store. Deaton swore he heard the murder of Callahan discussed when the alleged gunmen gathered at Fletcher Deaton's home in Jackson to prepare an alibi.

WOULD BE PRESIDENT.

Merrimac Hero Will Offer Himself in 1916 as a Progressive Democrat.

Birmingham, Ala., April 3.—Richmond Pearson Hobson for President. That is the intention of the much-kissed hero of the Merrimac, Representative in Congress of the Sixth Alabama district, and candidate for the United States Senate against Oscar W. Underwood, floor leader of the House democrats, between whom the voters will make their choice in the primaries Monday.

Hobson's Senatorial campaign manager in a statement made known the plans of his principal. Hobson, he declared, will seek election to the White House as 1916 as a progressive Democrat, with the support of anti-saloon forces throughout the country, if President Wilson's presidential primary bill passes.

The primaries will decide the Democratic nomination for the short and long term as United States Senator, as well as gubernatorial, Congressional, and minor State offices. Alabama being overwhelmingly Democratic a nomination is equivalnet to an election.

Birmingham, Ala., April 3.—A whirlwind finale of the fight between Representative Hobson and Representative Oscar Underwood for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator began yesterday. Hobson planned from 10 to 30 speeches daily until the close of the bitter campaign Saturday.

Mass meetings will be held by Underwood's friends in all large cities Friday and Saturday.

A majority of from 20,000 to 25,000 for Underwood in the primary election Monday was predicted by his managers. Hobson expresses confidence, but gives no figures.

Jacob S. Coxey, leader of the "army" of unemployed which marched on Washington in 1894, has established headquarters in New York. He said he would spend several days, looking after plans for "mobilization" of the New York wing of an army of 500,000 men which he intends to lead into the national capital some time this month. The main division of the army, he said, will leave Massillon, O, on April 16 and will be joined outside Washington by the Eastern division.

DANGEROUS AIR RIFLES.

Police to Stop Firing of Air Rifles By Prosecuting Boys' Parents.

Richmond, Va., April 3.—Summonses for four prominent business men were issued by the police yesterday to appear and show why they shouldn't be fined a minimum of $10 for allowing their sons to shoot air rifles in the city streets in violation of the city ordinance.

The case against the men resulted from the shooting, late yesterday afternoon, of Thomas Vaiden, son of H. M. Vaiden, by four boys with air rifles. The Vaiden boy was shot twice in the head.

Detective Sergeants Krengel and Atkinson, who investigated this case, were also called upon later in the evening to investigate a similar occurrence at the home of T. M. Landers, where two shots were said to have been fired through a large plate glass window. The officers were given a clue to the users of the firearms and it is probable that charges of ordinance violations will be filed against their fathers.

The police have been receiving a number of reports of windows and lights broken by air rifles in the West End of the city for several days, but these are the first charges which have resulted. The electric globes in front of the Church of the Covenant and before St. James Church have been broken by boys in this manner.

VIRGINIA BIBLE SOCIETY.

One Hundredth Anniversary to be Celebarted Next Sunday.

Richmond, Va., April 3.—The one hundredth anniversary of the Virginia Bible Society will be celebrated on Sunday April 5th, beginning at 3:30 p. m., in the City Auditorium, where an address will be made by the Hon. Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the navy. There will be a parade of Men's Bible classes and labor unions of the city, numbering several thousand persons.

The Virginia Bible Society, it is stated, is older than the American Bible Society, and during the wars in which the country has been engaged, in that period, it has supplied the armies with Bibles.

CHILD BURNS TO DEATH.

Little Newport News Boy Had Just Recovered From Diphtheria.

Newport News, Va., April 3.—His dress catchnig fire from a stove, James Horace Siville, eighteen-months-old son of Mrs. W. T. Siville, of 35th street, was fatally burned Tuesday morning. The child died in St. Francis Hospital duroing the afternoon.

The child was just recovering from an attack of diphtheria when he was fatally burned. At the time his dress caught fire his mother was in the back yard. She had left the house but a few minutes before she returned. When she discovered the child he was lying face down on the bed, his clothing and the bedding in flames.

The interior of the room also caught fire and the services of the fire department were required to extinguish them.

FORTY YEARS' COURTSHIP

Newport News, Va., April 3.—Ending a pretty romance that began more than forty years ago, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Ivy and Thomas Revel Mouring, both pioneer residents of this city, were united in marriage at the home of the bride, "The Ivy Farm," yesterday at noon. The groom is 68 years of age and the bride has attained the sixty mark. Mrs. Ivy, now Mrs. Mouring, prior to her first marriage, was Miss Winbon, who moved to Newport News from her native state, North Carolina, during her early girlhood.

The former sweethearts, each bereft of a life companion, were drawn together as if by a common cause. Old acquaintances were renewed and the days of their youthful courtship recalled and as a natural sequence the lonely swain and the still lonelier sweetheart of nearly half a century ago were made man and wife.

ARREST OF SHOPLIFTER.

Nineteen Year-Old Girl Alleged to Have Stolen Handsome Violet Suit.

Richmond, April 3.—In the arrest yesterday afternoon of Mary Bell, who gave her age as nineteen years, the police assert that they have a shoplifter who possesses unlimited nerve. She is charged with stealing a handsome suit, which retailed at $55, from Dreyfus & Company, of 210 East Broad street, on the afternoon of March 27. She was arrested as he was leaving the Colonial Theatre, and was wearing the garments she is alleged to have stolen.

At police headquarters the girl is said to have admitted the theft, and added that she had never before been in trouble. Her home, she said, was in Lynchburg, but she has been in Richmond for some time, but for three wekes has been out of work. Her father is Thomas H. Bell, who lives in Lynchburg.

A. G. Hoover, manager of Dreyfus & Company, told the police that the young woman came to the store and asked to be shown some suits. She tried on several, it was said, and a striking violet creation seemed to appeal to her fancy. She slipped on the jacket, and clerks recalled that she stood for some time before a mirror admiring it. Little attention was paid to her, and she was unobserved when she put on her own coat over the violet one. Then she is alleged to have wrapped up the skirt in a sheet of paper and without further ado walked out of the store.

At the First Police Station, where she was locked up she discarded the violet suit and was furnished with one of her own which had been brought to her.

John Jefferson was almost instantly killed on the farm of Clyde Borum, near Martinsburg, W. Va., by the explosion of the air compressor on the spraying apparatus he was operating.

Sixty feeble minded women and 125 women epileptics from Virginia almshouses are being removed to the state epileptic colony at Lynchburg.

RICHMOND LANDS RESERVE BANK.

The Federal Reserve Bank Organization Commitee has reached a conclusion on the financial division of the United States under the Federal reserve act passed last December.

Richmond, Va., is given the Federal reserve bank in the territory comprising the District of Columbia, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and all of West Virginia, except the counties of Marshall, Ohio, Brooke and Hancock. This district, known as "District No. 5," contains 475 national banks, which have accepted the provisions of the Federal reserve act.

The capital stock of the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, on the basis of 6 per cent of the total capital stock and surplus of the assenting national banks, will amount to $5,303,868, and if there be added 6 per cent of the capital stock and surplus of the State banks and trust companies that have applied for membership up to April 1 the total capital stock will be $6,543,281.

In a poll of the banks of the several States, Richmond was the first choice of 836 out of a total of 1,328 institutions; 404 out of 437 Virginia banks; 373 out of 436 North Carolina banks. Eighty-two South Carolina banks, and forty-nine banks in the southern part of West Virginia voted for Richmond. In South Carolina, where, Columbia was opposing Richmond 122 banks voted for Richmond as second choice.

It was shown that Virginia ranks fifth in the fifteen Atlantic Coast States in national banking importance, that Virginia is eighth among twenty-six States this side of the Mississippi River, and leads the Southern States in aggregate national bank resources.

Alexandria rejoices with her sister Virginia city in winning in this contest. The people of the capital city have worked in season, out of season for the reserve bank and they can now enjoy the fruits of their labors. Other cities in this section of the country also worked assiduously in the hope of receiving this plum, but the Old Dominion city kept in the lead all the time.

A Washington paper which has for years been enjoying considerable Virginia patronage, says:

"Washington has lost its fight for a regional bank. The Federal Bank through which the National Capital must transact its financial business is to be located at Richmond, Va., once the Capital of the Confederacy."

This apeal to the few persons now in the land of the living who prefer to wear bloody shirts throughout and make them their winding sheets when they shall be no more, is calculated to dampen the ardor of those who are working towards memorial structures which are to stretch across Mason and Dixon's line and eliminate all sectional animosity.

THE TOLL SITUATION.

Secretary Bryan Visits Capitol Yesterday and Meets Senators.

Secretary of State Bryan spent some time at the Capitol yesterday endeavoring to get the inside of the toll situation and to win opposing Democrats over to the President's viewpoint, if possible.

Mr. Bryan went to the Capitol to confer with the foreign relations committee on arbitration treaties now pending before that committee. Following the conference he visited the room of Senator Hoke Smith. To this room, convenient to the Senate chamber, it was an easy matter to bring senators whom the secretary wished to see.

It is understood that Senator Ashurst told Mr. Bryan that so long as blood ran red in the veins of Democrats there was no excuse that would justify him or any other member of the party in repudiating the solemn pledge upon which it had sought the votes of the people. He left the presence of Mr. Bryan more firm than ever in his determination not to support the President.

KILLS WIFE AND SELF.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 4.—In a frenzy bred of fear of impending blindness and the hallucination that his wife had put poison in his food, Alexander Glaser, 30 years old, a machinist, yesterday shot and killed the woman and himself in their home, at No. 5503 Master street. He pressed a revolver against his wife's head as she lay asleep with one of her children at her side, and pulled the trigger. Then he sent a bullet into his own abdomen and another into his brain. He died almost instantly.

Mistaking their father for a burglar, the two children, Charles, aged 8, and Francis, 6 years old, leaped from their beds at the sound of the shots and ran through the house screaming for help. They threw open the front door of the house and fell into the arms of Policeman Haase and William Seeley, a private watchman, who had heard the shots and screams.

"A bad burglar has killed my mamma and papa," the elder child exclaimed when he saw the uniformed officer. "I saw him shoot when we were running down the staris and I am sure they are dead. Please don't let him shoot us."

BANDITS RUN OUT OF TRAIN.

Shot Pistol From Robber's Hand and Put Two Others to Flight.

Atlanta, Ga. April 3.—Three masked bandits boarded the Atlanta-New York train on the Seaboard Air Line early yesterday, and while two stood guard the other drew a revolver and entering the express car, ordered Messenger R. C. Fletcher to throw up his hands.

News of the Day

According to a dispatch published in London, the skeleton of a person who had been apparently ten feet in height, has been found at Dysart county Louth, Ireland. The skeleton was unearthed, together with that of two others supposed to have been buried in prehistoric times. Three persons had been interred in separate graves, all incased with stones. The skull of the giant measured eighteen inches from the crown of the head to the chin.

William Henry Yeomans, baby son of Henry Yeomans, a wealthy mine owner, was left alone in his cab on the porch of his home in Cleveland, Ohio, late Monday. When the nurse returned, she found that a string on the baby's bonnet had caught on a hook at the side of the buggy, and in turning over the infant had strangled himself to death.

KREBLINGER SELECTED.

Washington, April 3. — President Wilson has authorized the appointment of Wilbur J. Kreblinger, of Virginia, to the consular service without the usual examinations.

Mr. Kreblinger was for 14 years secretary of the International Boundary Commission and at one time was commissioner for the United States on the Rio Grande and Colorado River commission.

Weak Lungs Often Lead to Serious Illness

If you have weak lungs, you are generally subject to colds or throat trouble and easily susceptible to serious Lung Trouble. In many cases pneumonia or bronchial troubles leave the lungs in a much weakened condition. Eckman's Alterative is a medicine for the throat and lungs which has been found to be very beneficial, even when a change of climate and other treatments failed to bring relief. Read of this case:—

231 S. Atlantic Ave., Haddonfield, N. J. "Gentlemen: In the fall of 1905 I contracted a very severe cold which settled on my lungs. At last I began to raise sputum, and my physician then told me I must go to California immediately. At this time I was advised to take Eckman's Alterative. I stayed at home and commenced taking it the last week in October. I began to improve, and the first week in January, 1906, I resumed my regular occupation, having gained 25 pounds, fully restored to health. It is now seven years since my recovery has been effected, and I cannot praise Eckman's Alterative too highly." W. M. TATEM.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. YOU'LL GROW OVER 'GETS-IT' FOR CORNS.

It Will Startle You How "GETS-IT" Gets Corns Every Time.

"One, two, three!" That's about as long as it takes you to apply "GETS-IT" the new-plan, simplest, surest corn cure the world has ever seen.

"This Is No Place For a Crow. Her Corns Are All Gone. She Must Have Used 'GETS-IT.'"

Corn fussing is all over. Corns, corn pains and calluses are absolutely done for, from the minute you apply "GETS-IT". Forget the bother of useless plasters, greasy salves that spread and make toes sore and raw, little doughnut cotton rings that press on corns, forget knives, razors, scissors, and the dangers of blood poison from drawing blood and the contraptions and harness that simply make corns worse. "GETS-IT" never hurts the flesh, never fails.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The detectives of Philadelphia working on the disappearance of 7-year-old Warren McCarrick have decided that the letter received several days ago stating that the boy had been kicked to death by a horse, and that the owner of the animal fearing arrest, had buried the body, is a hoax and have dropped that feature of the search. They came to this conclusion when a second letter in the same handwriting was received stating that the first letter was a hoax and that the boy is now with a band of gypsies.

A tragic shooting affray on the Upper East Side of New York last night cost the lives of Joseph Guarnieri, an honor man of the city's police department, and William Horgan, a laborer, who had concealed himself in a friend's home after shooting down a grand jury witness who had testified against Horgan's son, an alleged gangster. Charles Moser, a saloonkeeper, the elder Horgan's first victim, is in a hospital with a bullet wound in his shoulder. Horgan killed Guarnieri, and was in turn shot dead by a police lieutenant.

Three men were killed and four others probably fatally injured yesterday afternoon through the collapse of a derrick that was hoisting a ten-ton girder to the top of a moving picture house, in course of construction, in Brooklyn. The girder had been lifted almost to the top when the derrick snapped under the weight. The girder, crashing toward earth, smashed a scaffold on which the men were working, hurling the men to the ground, three being crushed by debris.

Seventy men and women were killed when a railway bridge near Tanjong Prich, Java, collapsed while a train was passing over it yesterday. Five coaches on the train plunged 200 feet into the water beneath. Most of the victims were trapped in the coaches and drowned. The bridge had been weakened by recent floods and the water was so deep at the point of the wreck that three of the cars was submerged completely.

On top of the abrupt raise in the spring retail price for coal to $6.50 a ton, it has become known that the retail dealers already have fixed a high water rate of $7 for next winter. This they have decided upon five months in advance of the winter trade, which, on the coal dealers calendar, starts September 1. The only explanation offered by the retailers was that their losses were heavy during the last winter, that wages are higher and that the coal mining companies have fastened on the retailer the 10 cents a ton exacted by the State of Pennsylvania as a tax. Precisely the same reasons were advanced for the jump in the spring rate to $6.50 a ton.

Two Chinese Pekinese poodles, valued at $1,000 each, and seven members of leading families of this city are under Pasteur treatment at Mercy Hospital, Pittsburgh, Pa., as a result of the little canines running amuck last Tuesday evening during an entertainment in the home of their owner, Mrs. Robert K. Duncan, a leading society woman. Those attacked and bitten by the dogs were Mrs. Robert K. Duncan, the owner of the Pekinese poodles and the hostess; Norman Duncan, the famous short-story writer and a brother-in-law of Mrs. Duncan; Mrs. W. S. Elliott, and four children.

Jean Gianini, sixteen, of Little Falls, N. Y., who is held for the murder of Miss Lida Beecher, his former school teacher on Friday last was indicted for the crime yesterday. The date of the trial will be set on next Saturday, according to the ruling of the court. The State wants the trial to begin on April 13, but the defense is anxious to have the trial postponed until June. The judge said that the first Monday in May was the latest date that could be set.

A sequel to a hazing episode in the girls' dormitory at Purdue University at Lafayette, Ind., was the filing yesterday of a damage suit, in which Mabel Rogers, of Shoals, is plaintiff and seven girls seniors at Purdue are defendants. Miss Rogers asks $7,000 damages. She alleges that when she was preparing her studies the girls dragged her from her room tore off her clothing, and, when nude, painted her chest, back, face, and neck with red ink, poured mucilage down her back, and stuck her with pins in an effort to compel her to kneel before them. She also alleges that they thrust her into a tub of water until her body was submerged.

THE REASON FEWER PEOPLE TAKE "SALTS."

We find the use of salts and other harsh physics becoming less every year because more and more people are using Rexall Orderlies, which we and they firmly believe to be the best bowel remedy ever made. They taste so much like candy that even the children like them. At the same time they act so easily and naturally that there is no purging, griping or pain. They promptly remove the constipation and, by soothing and strengthening the bowels, make it less liable to occur again. We have the utmost faith in them. We know what they are made of and the pleasant beneficial results that always follow their use.

You needn't take our word for it. If Rexall Orderlies don't help you—if they don't entirely relieve all your bowel troubles—come back and tell us and we'll give your money back. In vest pocket tin boxes; 10c, 25c, 50c.

You can buy Rexall Orderlies at The Rexall Stores, and in this town only of Wm. P. Taylor, Druggist, 616 King street.

THE FRANK CASE.

Detective Declares New Evidence Clears Atlanta Man.

Atlanta, Ga., April 3.—According to a statement made today by Frederick B. Biddinger, an assistant to Wm. J. Burns, there is no longer any mystery surrounding the murder of Mary Phagan, for which Leo M. Frank was convicted.

The detective declares that he has been following the clues discovered by Burns, and that they have enough evidence to insure Frank a new trial and to clear him of the charge of murder. Testimony given by a woman who was not responsible for what she said, Biddinger declared, had much to do with Frank's conviction.

Referring to the original affidavit of the woman, who charged Frank with calling her up the night of the murder for the purpose of obtaining permission to bring a girl to her house, said:

"It is possible for an irresponsible liar to do an innocent person almost irreparable harm. Although this woman may not be worthy of belief in anything she says, she has nevertheless accomplished nearly as much in damaging the character of Frank as though she were the most truthful person in the world."

peated words "Somebody says she'll say no, somebody knows she'll say ay," and makes his exit in a burst of applause. In the second scene the three friends enter one week later with King Gama, the father of the Princess, into his court. There the King informs them that against his own wishes, the Princess his daughter, led on by the Lady Blanche, had caused an inscription to be put upon the gates where the Prince lived, "Let no man enter here," and that he saw no way for them to get into the gates. Cyril hit upon an idea for them to get to see the Princess—that of going down in woman's garb.

This changes the situation and the Prince and his followers decide to do this. After a cross-examination of Ipse, a nobleman, as to the character and appearance of the ladies of "The Princess" the scene is closed. In the next scene Lady Psyche is seen drilling her pupils at the University in "The Poetry of Motion." After the very pretty drills, the Princess comes in and reads a letter saying that three ladies desire to come into the court and enter upon the promise of not speaking or having dealings with any man. They are admitted, our friends, the Prince, Cyril, and Florein, dresed in woman's clothes, and are received into the court by the Princes, while Lady Blanche reads them the agreement all must make here. The three friends all agree, and this ends the third scene. In the fourth scene Lady Psyche makes a speech in the lecture room of the University to her pupils among whom the Prince, Florein, and Cyril, are now numbered. After the dismissal by Lady Psyche of the pupils. Seh runs forward and recognizes Florein, her brother, and bewails the fact that he has come, as she says that he must now be killed, as no man being allowed in the gates, but in the end promising to shield the three, if they will only keep quiet and not make themselves known. They promise Melissa and the daughter of Lady Blanche, comes in at this juncture, but promises not to tell of anything she has seen or heard. This ends the fourth scene. The fifth scene is a corridor in the halls of the University where the Prince and his friends are discovered, discussing the merits of the play. Soon Melissa comes in and informs the three that her mother, Lady Blanche, knows all, and begs pardon of the three, as it was her (Melissa's) fault. After the Prince is called out to ride with the Princess, who still thinks the three are women, Lady Blanche comes in and soliloquizes on what she must do in regard to the three men, and says she will not shield Lady Psyche, whom she now hates. Exit. In the last scene, which is a spot in the woods, the Lady Psyche comes in and asks for forgiveness, it is announced the Prince is slain, the Princess banishes Lady Blanche, and as a closing scene with the entire company, the Prince and his two faithful followers come in with their courtly dress of the first two scenes, with the announcement that the Prince is living. The Princess then is at last won by the Prince with the fall of the curtain.

CASE OF REV. JOYCE.

Love Note of Pastor to Woman Causes His Suspension.

Baltimore, Md., April 3.—Finding the Rev. W. H. H. Joyce guilty of indiscretion and sentencing him to six months' suspension, the conference trial board made its report to the Baltimore annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

Mr. Joyce was accused of writing an indiscreet letter to a woman member of his congregation at Roanoke, Va., where he was formerly stationed. More serious charges which had been made against him were thrown out by the general conference court of appeals, and the case was remanded to the Baltimore conference for another trial.

In its verdict the court stated that "the accused did in November, 1911, write a letter containing many terms of personal endearment unbecoming in a married man to a married woman."

The following were chosen ministerial delegates to the general conference of the church to be held in Oklahoma City in May: The Revs. H. P. Hammil, of Gaithersburg; E. V. Regester, presiding elder of the Washington district; H. H. Sherman, of Staunton, Va.; D. H. Kern, of Alexandria, and J. H. Wells, of Roanoke.

Men and women are reading the Bible more than ever before, according to the report of the conference Bible Board, which was made yesterday. The report stated that there is a greater demand for the Bible than ever before in the history of the church.
